			Adapted from South Gloucestershire – Model Code of Contact for Locally Managed Schools – May 2018 Nov '23 Gifts and hospitality section added (section 7)

1. Policy

This Code of Conduct sets out the obligations and professional standards required of all members of staff at Little Stoke Primary School to ensure that staff are aware of illegal, unsafe, unprofessional and unwise behaviour, particularly in relation to safeguarding, and that children and young people are safe and well cared for.

This Code of Conduct promotes a whole school culture that is safe and inclusive and the accompanying guidance also enables staff members to be more knowledgeable about safeguarding situations in order to reduce the risk of allegations being made against them.

Staff are expected to adopt high standards of professional and personal conduct in order to maintain the confidence and respect of their work colleagues and the wider school community. The same high standards of professional and personal conduct must apply regardless of culture, disability, gender, language, racial origin, religious belief, and sexual orientation.

The School's values also set out the expectations of staff members with which staff members are expected to comply.

If staff are unclear on any aspects of the Code of Conduct then they should seek advice from their Line Manager or their Headteacher .

2. References

All references to 'child' and 'children' refer to any pupil or student at the School up to and including the age of 11.

References to 'School' refer to all Maintained Schools, all 'single' Academies, and Multi Academy Trusts.

The LADO is the Local Authority Designated Officer who manages child protection allegations against individuals who work with children and young people, whether in a paid or a voluntary position.

3. The Schools' Policies and Procedures

All staff must follow the School's Policies and Procedures.

Please note that a culture of openness and trust is promoted in this school and so staff are expected to report misconduct, or concerns (including safeguarding issues) using the appropriate school procedure if necessary.

In addition to this Code of Conduct all staff employed under Teachers' Terms and Conditions are expected to adhere to the Teachers' Standards.

All members of staff must comply with the Department for Education's statutory guidance entitled 'Keeping Children Safe in Education'. In order to locate the current document staff are advised to access the gov.uk website and search for the document by name within that website.

4. Safeguarding

All staff have a responsibility to keep children safe and to protect them from abuse (sexual, physical, emotional, and neglect) and safeguarding concerns.

Children have a right to be safe and to be treated with respect and dignity and adults are expected to take reasonable steps to ensure their safety and wellbeing. Children must be able to have trust in adults.

Staff must therefore adopt and promote the School's commitment to safeguarding and to promote the welfare of children to ensure that the welfare of children is paramount.

In relation to safeguarding, staff must make themselves familiar with the Behaviour Management Policy, the Child Protection Policy, Whistleblowing Policy, the Policy on the Use of Social Media, the Health and Safety Policy, the Policy on Educational Visits, the Policy on the taking and using of images of children, the ICT Policy. Policies can be found under the Teacher drive in policies or from the school office.

All staff should also be aware of the South West Child Protection Procedures.

<http://www.proceduresonline.com/swcpp/southglos/index.html>

Staff must ensure that they comply with the School's Safeguarding Policy and in addition there are dos and don'ts in relation to safeguarding in Appendix B.

5. Respect and Integrity

Relationships between staff should be characterised by fairness, openness and respect. This means valuing all contributions, acknowledging differences, and working together to build a climate of continuous improvement. Where differences occur they should be dealt with calmly and fairly.

Staff must also be courteous and supportive to the wider School community. Staff should aim to create a welcoming and open relationship with parents. All parental concerns should be treated seriously and dealt with promptly.

Staff must act with integrity, honesty, impartiality and objectivity in performing their duties.

Where a school staff member has been arrested by the police and/or is subsequently charged by the police, then that school staff member must inform the School of the situation. There is also an obligation on staff members to inform their Headteacher where they are convicted of a criminal offence or receive a caution once in employment.

6. Personal and financial interests

Staff must notify the Headteacher and declare any financial or non-financial interest which they consider could conflict with the School's interests (please refer to Appendix A).

Where a staff member's duties require them to deal with matters concerning outside organisations, bodies or individuals and where the employee is personally and/or directly or indirectly involved (e.g. they have a close personal relationship with an individual involved in one of these organisations or bodies) then the staff member must notify the Headteacher of the relationship.

Orders and contracts must therefore be awarded on merit and no preferential treatment must be shown to businesses in the tender process where they are run, for example, by friends, partners or relatives.

Information obtained in the course of employment must not be used for personal gain or benefit, and it should not be passed to others who may use information in such a way.

7. Gifts and hospitality:

A. Definitions

Gifts are any items, cash, awards, prizes, goods or services, offered without expectation of payment or benefit. Gifts also include goods or services offered at a discounted rate, or on terms not available to the general public.

Hospitality is defined as food, drink, accommodation or entertainment (such as cultural or sporting events) provided free of charge, heavily discounted or on terms not generally available to the general public.

B. Roles and responsibilities

B.1 Staff

Staff:

- Must not give or accept gifts or hospitality to or from a third party where it might be perceived that their personal integrity has the potential to be compromised, or that the trust might be placed under any obligation as a result of acceptance
- Must not use their official position to further their private interests or the interests of others
- Must not solicit gifts or hospitality

- Must record any gifts or hospitality offered to them or the trust with a value of over £50 on the gifts and hospitality register (see appendix 3) within 7 working days, even if declined
- Must consult the Headteacher before accepting or offering any gifts or hospitality with a value of over £50

B.2 The Headteacher

The headteacher is responsible for ensuring that staff are aware of and understand this policy, and that it is being implemented consistently.

The headteacher will act with the utmost integrity on all matters relating to gifts and hospitality, ensuring that they set a good example to the rest of the school and trust and to those outside the organisation.

They will also ensure, alongside the school business manager that decisions on whether individuals or the trust can accept or offer gifts or hospitality with a value of over £50 are in line with this policy.

The headteacher is responsible for communicating the school/trust's rules and expectations about gift-giving to parents.

B.3 The business manager

The business manager is responsible for maintaining the gifts and hospitality register as required.

C. Acceptable gifts and hospitality

C.1 Offer of gifts and hospitality received

Members, trustees and staff can accept gifts and hospitality that have a value of up to £50. These do not have to be pre-approved or recorded on the gifts and hospitality register.

Generally, gifts of nominal value, such as small tokens of appreciation, may be accepted. If in any doubt, members, trustees and staff must consult the headteacher.

Similarly, hospitality such as working lunches may be accepted in order to maintain good relationships with key contacts, provided the hospitality is reasonable in the circumstances. If in doubt, guidance must be sought from the headteacher, or in the case of the headteacher, the chair of governors.

Any gifts or hospitality offered with a value of over £50 must be recorded on the gifts and hospitality register within 7 working days, even if declined. Any member of staff who is offered such gifts or hospitality must consult the headteacher before accepting.

If the headteacher is the recipient, or intended recipient, of any offer of gifts or hospitality, they must inform the chair of the board of governors and record the offer on the gifts and hospitality register.

Failure to declare any offer of gifts or hospitality on the register in line with this policy will be treated as a staff disciplinary matter.

D. Unacceptable gifts and hospitality

The following must never be offered or accepted:

- Monetary gifts
- Gifts or hospitality offered to family members, partners or close friends of members, trustees or staff
- Gifts or hospitality from a potential supplier or tenderer in the immediate period before tenders are invited or during the tendering process
- Lavish or extravagant gifts or hospitality, even if they relate to activities the recipient undertakes in their own time

This list is not intended to be exhaustive.

E. Declining gifts and hospitality

Any members, trustee or staff member who is offered any of the unacceptable gifts or hospitality outlined in section 6 above should politely decline the offer.

If they feel it would not be appropriate for them to decline, they should refer the matter to the headteacher. The headteacher may decline the offer, or donate the gift or hospitality to a worthy cause, and must also record the offer on the gifts and hospitality register.

Disciplinary action will be taken against anyone who fails to decline gifts or hospitality the trust has deemed unacceptable.

Failure to declare any gifts or hospitality offered on the gifts and hospitality register, in line with this policy, will be dealt with as a staff disciplinary matter.

8. Use of Financial Resources

All staff have a responsibility to look after the resources of the School. These are public funds which must be used in a responsible manner and in accordance with the financial regulations that apply to the School.

9. Political neutrality

Employees should ensure that they do not use their position for political gain either as an individual or for any political group or allow their own personal or political opinions to interfere with their work.

10. Inventions, Patents and Intellectual Rights

Subject to prior approval from the Headteacher (the Headteacher should seek approval from the Chair of Governors) staff must not gain financially from the creation of an idea/an invention made in the course of the staff member's specified duties and working hours.

Normal duties are those described or inferred in the job description as well as any notified temporary changes to duties.

11. Public relations, talking to the media and legal enquiries

For locally maintained schools, the local authority's strategic communications team coordinate and manage all media relations including co-ordinating interviews, producing news releases, statements and lines to take.

It is advisable for staff to think very carefully before speaking to the media. Staff may wish to seek advice from their Headteacher or their Professional Association/Trades' Union Representative before doing so.

Members of staff should inform their Headteacher if they have been contacted by a legal representative in relation to a school matter (e.g. to give evidence); however a member of staff must personally decide whether or not to answer questions.

12. Professional behaviour and confidentiality

Staff should be punctual and well-prepared, and should carry out tasks to the best of their ability, taking pride in their work.

Staff are expected to dress appropriately (guidance should be sought from the Headteacher if staff are unclear on 'dress'), and not wear clothing that could be viewed as offensive, revealing or sexually provocative.

All staff are under a duty to comply with the General Data Protection Regulations 2018 and keep secure all confidential and sensitive information. Failure to do this could be considered a breach of the Code of Conduct.

Staff may have access to confidential information (in order to undertake their day to day responsibilities) about children, their families or school staff. This must be kept confidential at all times and only shared when legally permissible to do so or where it is in the interest of the child to do so (for example where abuse is alleged or suspected). Confidential information should never be shared with any person (including friends, partners, etc.) other than on a need to know basis. If staff are unsure as to whether to disclose information then they should seek advice from the Headteacher or the Chair of Governors, or in relation to safeguarding then advice can be sought from the LADO.

13. Curriculum

Teaching staff need to take a proactive approach towards both child protection and behaviour policies, through the creation of a positive classroom environment where all children are respected, and through PSHE and circle time in particular.

Many areas of the curriculum can include or raise subject matter which is sexually explicit or of a political or sensitive nature. Care should be taken to ensure that resource materials cannot be misinterpreted and clearly relate to the learning outcomes identified. Advice in this area should be sought from the School’s Designated Safeguarding Lead. Care should be taken to ensure that resource materials cannot be misinterpreted and clearly relate to the learning outcomes as determined by the planning of lessons.

14. Staff’s health and wellbeing

All staff are encouraged to look after their health and wellbeing. This includes maintaining a healthy work-life balance. We take issues of stress very seriously, and look to provide appropriate support and help in these cases. Staff needing support are encouraged to discuss issues and concerns with their Line Manager in the first instance, and thereafter with a Senior Leader/the Headteacher. Support can be provided both internally (eg through the provision of a mentor), or externally through the Occupational Health Service. Professional Associations/Trades’ Unions also provide help, support and advice for their members.

15. Breaches of the Code of Conduct

Staff need to be aware that there may be a disciplinary issue where there is a breach of the Code of Conduct. Please refer to the School’s Disciplinary Procedure.

Appendix B: The Dos and Don'ts of Safeguarding

Staff must ensure that:

- if they are concerned about any matter connected with the well-being of children that they report these concerns to the Headteacher* or the Designated Safeguarding Lead (staff should familiarise themselves with the School's Whistleblowing Procedure). There may be occasions when staff may wish to report a concern directly to the South Gloucestershire LADO on 01454 868508 (Schools outside of South Gloucestershire should confirm their LADO contact details) or to Ofsted or the NSPCC whistleblowing helpline is 0800 028 0285 (the email address is help@nspcc.org.uk)
- they seek advice from Headteacher if they are unclear on any aspect of safeguarding including managing children's behaviour or if they are having difficulties in managing children's behaviour;
- appropriate boundaries are maintained at all times when dealing with children, that they avoid behaviour which could be misinterpreted by others and report and record any incident (staff need to be aware that they are in a position of trust with children at the School);
- they exercise care when discussing personal information with children (e.g. about their own family) ensuring that they maintain clear boundaries between their professional role and their personal life.
- relationships are appropriate to the age, gender and maturity of the children;
- they consider how their behaviour will be perceived by children, parents/carers and colleagues;
- (where possible) they leave doors open during private meetings with children, or are visible to passers-by or are accompanied by a third party;
- probing for information about a sensitive subject can be justified i.e. for pastoral/welfare responsibilities;
- they alert their Headteacher* or the Designated Safeguarding Lead if they suspect that they are the subject of a crush or an infatuation and handle any suspected infatuations or crushes sensitively;
- they apply the standards of professional conduct as set out in this Code of Conduct whether on or off school premises;
- they do not consume, or be under the influence of, alcohol or any substance when caring for children which may affect their ability to care for children (if they are on prescribed medication and this may affect their ability to care for children, then they should ensure that they are fit to care for children and must inform their Headteacher* of any concerns that they may have);
- they keep all passwords secure for e-enabled technology;
- they are aware of the potential problems of using social media (please refer to the School's Policy on the Use of Social Media for clarification).

Staff must ensure that:

- they do not accept any gift which might be construed as a bribe by others or lead the giver to expect preferential treatment. However usually staff may accept small tokens of appreciation from children or their families, e.g. at Christmas, but it is unacceptable to receive gifts on a regular basis or of any significant value;
- gifts are only to be given to children as part of a School agreed approach;
- they exercise care when selecting children for specific activities, jobs or privileges in order to avoid perceptions of favouritism or injustice;
- they let the head know if anything happens of concern for a child with whom they have regular social contact outside of school, or if a child has certain vulnerabilities
- in terms of the use of their personal equipment that they adhere to the School's ICT Policy and the E- Safety Policy;
- they are not afraid to take action when required to prevent harm or injury to children (in line with the School's Behaviour Management Policy) or others and always report such incidents.

Staff must not:

- make ambivalent or ambiguous comments towards or about children;
- make unnecessary physical contact with children (please refer to the School's policy on Managing Children's Behaviour) and also make any physical contact which is inappropriate and improper (arrangements for intimate and personal care should be handled according to agreed procedures and recorded);
- react to misbehaviour with a physical response as this is potentially actionable by law (unless this is in line with the School's policy on Managing Children's Behaviour). Physical abuse can include, but is not restricted to, grabbing, pushing, poking or slapping, restraining a child in a chair or locking that child in a room, punching or kicking, pulling hair or biting, tripping up or close up shouting and/or getting into personal space;
- demean, scapegoat or undermine children or encourage others to do this;
- use inappropriate language in the presence of children e.g. swearing, comments designed to humiliate, language that has sexual overtones, etc. arrange private meetings with children off school premises;
- offer confidentiality to children where there are safeguarding suspicions or concerns;
- give children their personal contact details including email addresses/mobile number or give children their Facebook, Twitter or any social media account details (please refer to the School's Policy on the Use of Social Media);
- behave in a manner which would lead any reasonable person to question their suitability to work with children or to act as an appropriate role model;
- discuss their sexual relationships with or in the presence of children;

Staff must not:

- offer to transport children outside of their normal working duties (unless staff have the permission of the parent) other than in an emergency or where doing so would mean the child may be at risk - any such action must be reported to the Headteacher* and the child's parents;

- make, download, possess or distribute indecent images or pseudo-images of children (child abuse images) whether using the school's or personal equipment which is illegal;
- use school equipment to access pornography;
- allow children to be exposed to indecent images or age inappropriate images;
- make and use images of children without the age appropriate consent of the individual concerned and their parents/carers;
- ask children to assist adults with jobs or task either for or without reward at or in their private accommodation (please note that it is not appropriate for staff to be expected or requested to use their private living space for any activity, play or learning).

*The Headteacher should inform the Chair of Governors; Headteachers must also ensure that they are aware of the LADO procedures.
